Greenville Juror Parking Instructions:

Please note that parking in Greenville is at a premium. There are 20 reserved parking spaces at the corner lot at the intersection of Martin Luther King (old Fifth Street) and Pitt Street. The spaces are inside the low-rise brick retaining wall. This is the back corner of Pugh's Tire Service, directly behind the bus station. The area is marked with a jurors only parking sign and the spaces for jurors are individually marked. Please park ONLY in the designated spaces or you will be subject to towing at your own expense.

There are also multiple, non-time-limited parking spaces on each of Evans and Cotanche Streets between First and Second Streets. These spaces ARE NOT reserved as they are public parking spaces.

There is also limited parking on Third Street; about four blocks from the courthouse; toward Reade Street, the ECU campus, and the residential areas. These spaces ARE NOT reserved as they are public parking spaces.

Please note that all parking is first come, first served. You should allow sufficient travel time so that you can be in the downtown area at least 30 minutes before you are due in court. This should allow sufficient time to find parking and to get to the courthouse in a timely manner.
